

Career guidance and help

There are several organisations which can help you make decisions about your career choice and what help is available to you. Listed below are free services which offer advice, information and resources. Information is also available at all local training providers, adult and community learning centres, colleges and universities.

NATIONAL CAREERS SERVICE – advisers can offer free information and advice about learning and work in Surrey

0800 1954 700

<https://nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk>

LEARNDIRECT – offer free independent careers advice and deliver online learning

0800 100 900

www.learndirect.co.uk

GOV.UK the new web service that has replaced Direct.gov.uk

<https://www.gov.uk/browse/education>

JOBCENTRE PLUS – provide information and help for you to find a job

0845 6060 234

www.jobcentreplus.gov.uk

ADULT LEARNING IN SURREY – promoting learning for everyone in Surrey.

<http://www.adultlearninginsurrey.org.uk>

EAST SURREY COLLEGE

<http://www.esc.ac.uk/>

These services can all help you get Information about available opportunities, Advice on what you need to do now to start your new life or new career and guidance on how to go about it. Some organizations will be able to meet you face-to-face. Some will help you with your questions over the phone, and some will offer you excellent information on their websites.